

For Immediate Release: September 14, 2022

League of Women Voters of Tompkins County will be registering voters throughout the County on National Voter Registration Day, Tuesday September 20, 2022

League of Women Voters of Tompkins County (LWVTC) announced that together with community partners, they would be participating in National Voter Registration Day (NVRD), a nationwide, nonpartisan effort to register hundreds of thousands of voters on Tuesday, September 20. Members of LWVTC, together with our partners, will be available to assist members of our community who want to become voters, to register to vote, or update their registration if they have moved. In New York October 14 is the deadline to register; October 19 is the deadline to update your registration.

“Every eligible American deserves the chance to participate,” said Sally Grubb, Co-president of LWVTC. “Voter registration is the first step to ensuring your voice is heard.”

LWVTC is partnering with ALL the County libraries, Finger Lakes Independence Center (FLIC), TC3, Significant Elements at Historic Ithaca, a new collaborative community group of organizations seeking to provide civic education and voter registration to the disenfranchised on The Commons to provide voter registration at different times on September 20. Full details of locations, and times can be found at www.lwvtompkins.org

Now in its ninth year, National Voter Registration Day has been a game-changing annual nonpartisan campaign to voters in communities and online. Embraced by celebrities, bipartisan elected officials and organizations, NVRD leverages the collective impact of thousands of community partners, including hundreds of League of Women Voters groups, nationwide, every year.

“The League of Women Voters of Tompkins County empowers voters through education, registration and get-out-the-vote activities in every election,” said Nancy Skipper, Vote411 voice. “We host candidate and issue forums and registration drives and provide trusted and timely elections information on VOTE411.org. We believe our democracy is strongest when every voice is heard.”